Online Portal for Employment Discrimination Claims

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) has launched a new online tool intended to make it easier for employees to initiate employment discrimination claims against their employers.

The EEOC Public Portal allows individuals to obtain EEOC services, file charges against employers and monitor their claims through the internet.

For Employers

Employers subject to federal anti-discrimination laws should be aware

While most EEOC-enforced laws apply only to employers with 15, 20 or more employees, virtually all employers are subject to at least one of the laws, such as the Equal Pay Act.

Portal Features

In addition to facilitating online inquiries and requests for interviews, the EEOC Public Portal allows for the following:

- Engaging in pre-charge interviews and counseling with EEOC agents via webcams and teleconferencing
- Inputting the data required for a charge of discrimination against an employer
- Directing the EEOC to prepare a formal charge against an employer
- Reviewing, digitally signing and filing a formal charge that has been prepared by the EEOC

When a charge is filed against an employer, the EEOC will send a notice that directs the employer to a separate online system called the EEOC Defendant Portal, which

DID YOU KNOW?

Senate Tax Bill Repercussions

The latest tax bill passed the Senate on Dec. 2, 2017, and now heads to the House for reconciliation, where it is expected to pass and ultimately become law. Beyond the proposed tax cuts for affluent Americans, here are some areas affected by the bill that may impact your business:

- The individual mandate
- Retirement plans
- Tuition benefits
- Dependent care flexible spending accounts
- Paid leave credits
- Defined benefit pensions

Since this legislation must still be reconciled, aspects may change in the near future.

Deutsch & Associates, LLC will monitor the bill's development and keep you apprised of any relevant details.
